Voting

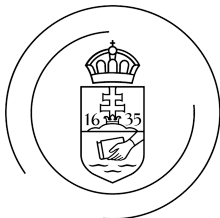

Pursuant to Section 19 (1), point a) of ELTE ÁJK Students' Union Statutes, the students of the Faculty shall elect the Delegates' Assembly representatives by universal and equal suffrage, by secret and direct ballot, through the Neptun online platform. Voting period: 16–29 November 2026. The purpose of the election is for the members of the Students' Union to elect the members of the Delegates' Assembly.

Rules of the electoral procedure

The election of the ELTE Faculty of Law Students' Union Delegates' Assembly representatives shall be conducted in accordance with Sections 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 32 of ELTE ÁJK Students' Union Statutes.

ELTE ÁJK Students' Union Statutes also comply with all requirements concerning electoral procedures set out in higher-ranking sources of law. The rules governing the procedure are set out in full in the ELTE ÁJK Students' Union Statutes, which are available on the following website http://ehok.elte.hu/nu/wp-content/uploads/2022/06/EHOK_ASZ_2022.06.28.pdf.

- The Chair of the Supervisory Board calls the election of the Delegates' Assembly representatives.
- Following the call for elections, the Supervisory Board compiles the electoral register and assigns voters to electoral districts.
- During the nomination period, voters nominate candidates in the manner described above.
- Once the nomination period has ended, the Supervisory Board determines the identities of the candidates for Delegates' Assembly representative.
- During the election, voters elect the number of representatives corresponding to their electoral district, as indicated in the table. Each voter has as many votes as there are mandates available in their electoral district. Pursuant to Section 32 (1), in each electoral district, the candidates for Delegates' Assembly representative who receive the highest number of valid votes, in a number corresponding to the number of mandates available in that electoral district, obtain a mandate as Delegates' Assembly representative.

- Following the election, the Supervisory Board determines the result by means of a resolution. The result enters into force three days after the closing of the election, at which point the elected Delegates' Assembly representatives obtain their mandates.

The right to appeal

Pursuant to ELTE ÁJK Students' Union Statutes

Section 24

(4) The result of the nominations is determined by a resolution of the Supervisory Board. An objection may be lodged against the resolution. An objection has suspensive effect.

Section 25

(7) If the Supervisory Board fails to include a voter in the electoral register, the voter may request their inclusion from the Supervisory Board within three days of receiving the information specified in paragraph (6). The Supervisory Board shall decide on the request without delay, but no later than within one day.

(8) A voter may appeal to the Supervisory Board against the decision referred to in paragraph (7) within two days.

(9) After the period available for the procedure under paragraph (8) has expired, the Supervisory Board shall establish the final electoral register.

Section 28

(1) The result of the election is determined by a resolution of the Supervisory Board. An objection may be lodged against the resolution. An objection has suspensive effect.

Section 30

(3) If a student could be assigned to more than one electoral district, the Election Committee shall assign the student to the electoral district corresponding to the student status that arose first.

(4) A student assigned under paragraph (3) may request, within three days of being notified of the assignment, that the Supervisory Board assign them to the electoral district corresponding to their later-acquired student status.
